

Die Sabbathi 11. Februarij. 1642.

WHereas divers summes of money upon the Propositions of both Houses of Parliament, for the raising of Horse, Horsemen, and Armies, for the defence of the King, Parliament, and Kingdome, have beene raised and payed to divers Treasurers deputed by Order of this House, in severall Counties of this kingdom, which Treasurers have yet passed no accompts thereof to this House, and that divers Summes so Subscribed, are not yet paid to the said Treasurers, or by them, to the Treasurers of money & plate in Guild hall London; It is now ordered that the severall Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses of this House, doe forthwith bring in the names of all such persons as (within the said severall Counties and places for which they serve) have beene appointed to collect and receive any summe or summes of money for the use aforesaid, together with the names of the places where such Collectors and Receivers do live and inhabite, And to bring in the same to the Clerke of this house within eight dayes, whereupon the said Clerke shall deliver the said Notes to some of the Committee of Lords and Commons for advance of monies for the Army, which Committee shall hereby have power to issue warrants to all and every the said Treasurers, Collectors, and Receivers; to require them forthwith to repaire to the said Committee, and there to passe their severall Accompts touching the Premises, as also to bring in all such Summes of money as shall appeare upon their Accompts to remaine in their custody, to the said Treasurers at Guild hall London; And likewise the names of all such as have Subscribed any summes of money and have not paid the same, wherein if they faile, this House upon Certificate from the said Committee of such default will proceed against them as contemners of the Orders of this House, and abusers of the trust reposed in them. And it is further ordered, that this Order be Printed and published, as the said Committee of Lords and Commons for advance of money shall direct.

H. Elfyng Cler. Parl. D. Com.